MUSICAL THEATRE AWARDS

Director's Note

This is the tenth musical I've directed at Independence. Some days it feels like just yesterday when Dorothy was taken up in a twister or a group tap danced their way across the stage in Anything Goes or we watched the Beast transform into a handsome prince. In every musical that's taken place here at IHS, there has been one constant: the talented students.

Choosing a show is always a process. I can't forget when a sweet then freshmen said "We should do Bring It On!" I laughed and brushed it off. Somehow this became choice number one among the students and they campaigned, promoted and defended this option. So, why not? Especially after we learned the connection with our competition cheer coach (she was in the original Bring It On cast) ... if these kids were up for the challenge, so was I. We make a pretty good team when it comes to musicals.

In what has been our shortest rehearsal schedule of the past decade, these students have surpassed Every. Single. Expectation. They've worked with not one but TWO choreographers with Broadway backgrounds (Casey and Valtaire - I LOVE that these kids had this incredible experience!!!), they've used brand new lighting equipment and designed an entire show in just days, they've dealt with the rainiest February possible, they've been pushed beyond their limits in many areas only to find that they had no idea of their capabilities. Every cast and crew member, brand new or returning, has made this production possible in their own unique and necessary way! Along with a talented directing staff and an amazing group of parents, this show is a success.

Bring It On is enjoyable for so many reasons: the dancing, the music, the characters, the intensity of competition! But, go beyond the surface and it carries some great messages! The world, especially high school, can be so divisive. The movie this is based on came out nearly 20 years ago, and while the show, and our own production, is completely its own, the messages spread throughout are quite clear: whether you believe, think, look, or act different we all are deserving of honest friendships and love.

We have a large group of seniors who will take the stage for the last time (in cast and crew) and we will definitely feel their absence next year. But, I can't wait to see how their level of excellence, leadership and talent is passed down to the next group.

It's hard to say what my favorite musical has been here, but one thing is clear, this one sure gives the others a run for their money. And, while the show itself has some beautiful moments, it's the people who are a part of it that make it the most unforgettable.

We hope you enjoy this production of Bring It On: The Musical. Feel free to escape into the world of cheerleading competition and leave with the messages of friendship and love.

About the Directors

REBECCA TERTZAKIAN WILLIAMS

Director

She has served as the theatre teacher and director at Independence since 2009. Her love for performing and teaching began at a young age! She could often be found "teaching" the other kids in her neighborhood or putting on elaborate productions ... all at the ripe old age of 5. She received her education from Concordia University Chicago where she earned a degree in Secondary Education, majoring in Speech and Theatre. Her first three years of teaching were spent in the south suburbs of Chicago at Crete-Monroe High School. She taught English, Speech and Theatre. One day, she heard Nashville calling her name and has lived happily ever after working in Williamson County Schools! She's directed over 20 productions including Pippin, Beauty and the Beast, Almost Maine, Anything Goes, The Crucible, Cinderella, and now Bring it On! Last year, she directed Legally Blonde, which received eight nominations at the Spotlight Awards. Then under her direction, The Matchmaker (1-Time Productions Fall Play) was selected to perform at this year's TCON. In addition to teaching, she also serves on the board for the Tennessee Thesplan Conference. She's proud to be a teacher to her talented students, a wife to her loving husband and a mom to the two sweetest, curliest headed kiddos around!

JUSTIN KIRBY

Music Director

Justin Kirby holds a music education degree from Western Kentucky University. He's also an accomplished pianist with over 20 years of experience. He previously taught at Hunters Lane High School where he directed The Wiz and Sweeney Todd. This is his 5th year of teaching but his first as the choral director at Independence. He is thrilled to join the Independence family, especially having the opportunity to work with such skilled and talented students. Mr. Kirby is the recipient of the PBS Digital Innovator Award and his choirs, here at Indy and Hunters Lane, have received honors at the MTVA Choral Festival. He is currently working on a masters degree in Educational Leadership at Trevecca Nazarene University. 2018-2019 has been a great year for him ... in addition to joining the faculty at IHS, he also got engaged and will be married this summer to his beautiful fiance, Jessica.

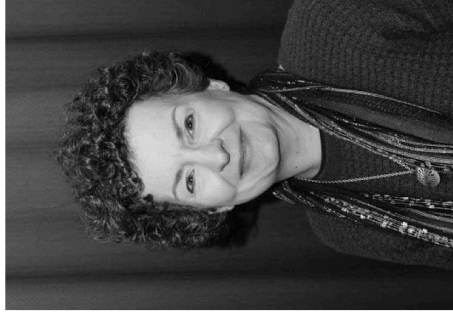

PATRICIA WAKEFIELD

Music Director

Patricia Wakefield is in her fourteenth season as a music director with IHS theatre, having made her debut with the theater program's inaugural musical production of Anything Goes (2005). She has been privileged to music direct Godspell, Charlie Brown, The Sound of Music, Little Women, Wizard of Oz, Beauty and the Beast, Bye Bye Birdie, Hair Spray, Grease, Anything Goes (2015), Pippin, and Cinderella. Patricia also music directed Spring Hill Arts Center's productions of Fiddler on the Roof and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat.

A native of Alabama, Patricia holds a Bachelor of Music degree from Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama and a Master of Church Music degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Ft. Worth, Texas. She served on the music ministry staff of churches in Alabama, Texas, and Arkansas, and as Associate Music Director for Missouri Baptist Convention. Patricia has provided keyboard accompaniment for operas, recitals, and choral groups at various universities. As a freelance writer, she has written articles and curriculum for children's choirs and church accompanists. Patricia is a private music instructor in her home-based studio, Studio Cadanza.
