A Big Thanks To...

- Dramatists Play Service - for the wonderful rights to produce Sabrina Fair
- Patron Circle Members
- Program Advertisers
- IHS Administration
- IHS Custodial Staff
- Kim Montrose, Christy Sullivan, and Cindy Todd for your kindness, understanding, and constant assistance
- Justin Alexander/Coach A for being continuously supportive and sharing your creativity with us once again
- Fidelity Offset and Brian Clements for the t-shirts!
- Tadd Himelrick for always listening and being so easy to work with!
- Harpeth True Value – some of the friendliest people in the business – thanks for making our show beautiful.
- Incredibly supportive friends
- Brian “Brandon” Williams – because you’re terrific
- Those who donated all of the awesome items for our auction – you are truly helping this program continue!
- The parents – oh, it would take pages upon pages to thank you individually and properly. Beyond bringing in meals, costumes, props and coming in for meetings and reading and responding to endless e-mails – you are simply good people. Some of the very best. And you are forever appreciated for helping make this program what it is.
- The parents of seniors – just like your children, you will be missed beyond measure. Everything there is to say is bursting in these two words: Thank you.
- The cast and crew: grateful to you. Always.

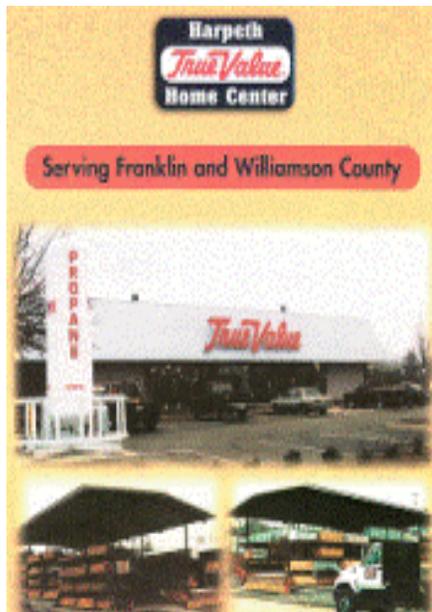

Meet Your Crew

Chelsea Galey (co-stage manager) is so honored to be a stage manager in only her second show here at IHS. Starting off in Wizard of Oz as a set crew member led to an indescribable love for the stage. After finishing her sophomore year, Chelsea will be inducted into the International Thespian Society. She would like to thank all of her friends for putting up with her throughout all of the tired, crabby, post-rehearsal days, Miss T for encouraging her to join the set crew, the seniors for their encouragement and memories, her parents for allowing her to stay at the school and picking her up and finally God for blessing her with so many opportunities.

Beau Collins (co-stage manager) is a freshman at IHS. He fell in love with theatre and plans to pursue it in his future. He was most recently seen on stage as Charlie in Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory and as Herbie Hinkle in Bachelorettes. In addition to theatre, he is also in a band. He wants to give a special thanks to Miss T and Taylor Sokoll for showing him "the way of theatre" :)

Jason Thompson is definitely excited to be in Sabrina Fair as Peter. He has also acted in the One Act Festival. Last fall, he was in The Wizard of Oz. He would like to thank his parents and friends for being such awesome supporters. Jason hopes that all will enjoy the show!

Nyle Pierson is a freshman here at IHS, and is pretty much exploding with intense excitement and pride about playing Robert, in T-Time Production's performance of Sabrina Fair. He has already performed in the One Act Festival playing "God" in Don't Fear the Reaper and "Augustus Gloop" in Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. Being a joke-y fellow, and a self-proclaimed "boss," Nyle hopes to provide a comic relief side to this intense love story performance and hopes that the experience will completely blow your mind. He would like to thank his entire, ginormous family for all the immense support and praise for his exploits in the theatre department.

Allison Huber is a sophomore at IHS and is so excited to be joining a great cast for Sabrina Fair as Margaret. She has previously studied at the Salt Lake City for the Performing Arts High school. Some of her past performances include Young Apennine in Les Miserables; Baloo in The Jungle Book; the Cat in Honk, Jr.; Veruca Salt in Willy Wonk; a chorus member in Hello, Dolly; an Apple Tree, Jitterbug, and female chorus member in The Wizard of Oz, and as Veruca Salt a second time in Charlie and the Chocolate Factory for the One Act Festival. Allison would like to thank her wonderful mother and father, as well as her siblings, for believing in and supporting her. Most of all, she would also like to thank the amazing seniors here for helping her so much and giving her great memories. She also knows that they will be great in anything and everything they do!

Kerey Morris (Gretchen Larrabee) is thrilled to be a part of the Class of 2010's final main-stage production. This is Kerey's third main-stage performance at Independence; she appeared as Louisa Von Trapp in The Sound of Music her sophomore year, and this past fall she choreographed parts of The Wizard of Oz, as well as playing a poppy, crow, and an impish jitterbug. Kerey will be attending Syracuse University this fall; she plans to participate in the First Year Players and play club lacrosse. Go 'Cuse! To the underclassmen of T-Time Productions: You guys are fantastic! Knock EVERYONE'S socks off next year, you are beyond capable of doing so! And to the SEN10RS: I am so blessed to have met you all. Nothing would have been the same without you guys. Kerey also wants to thank God and her family for being their wonderful selves!

Allison Smith (Dorothy) is so excited to perform in her third production here at IHS. She feels right at home in the theatre department and would love to thank all her friends and family for their love and support throughout the year. Watch out LA, because here comes the next rising star!

Caity Bosarge is thrilled to appear in her first main-stage performance at IHS as Betty. While she helped out backstage during The Wizard of Oz, and also The One Act Festival, she is now excited to present her talent onstage. She would like to thank her parents for all their support, and hopes that you enjoy the show!

Lindsey Blum is a senior here at IHS and is super excited to be playing “Aunt” Julia McKinlock yet sad to be in her last high school show. Over the past few years, you may have seen her as Aunt March in Little Women, or Aunt Em in The Wizard of Oz. Not only does she like performing, she also enjoys tech work, like make-up and set crew. Lindsey is an active member in ITS and is the Executive Board treasurer. Being a part of theatre has made her high school experience a blast. She has memories she will never forget and she friends she will always remember. She would like to thank you all for making these past four years magical and she hopes you will enjoy this presentation of Sabrina Fair. “You may say I’m a dreamer, but I’m not the only one. I hope someday you will join us, and the world will live as one.” – Peace and love!

As this is Wyatt Fetner’s final performance on the IHS stage (as Linus Larrabee, Sr.), he would like to take a moment and reflect on his many memories made in the theatre. Wyatt has been seen before as Joe Stoddard in Our Town, Rerun in You’re a Good Man, Charlie Brown, Patrick O’ Reilly in The Musical Comedy Murders of 1940, Colonel March in Little Women, and most recently as the Winkee General and Head of the Lollipop Guild in the hit performance of The Wizard of Oz. Wyatt is a senior representative on the ITS board, and also the head set designer/builder. He has spent countless long nights making sure that the audience will be amazed by outstanding scenery and special effects.

IN his imaginary spare time, Wyatt loves to read, shoot, and have fun adventures with friends. He is the Battalion Executive Officer for the JROTC program, an all Honors and AP student and a National Honor Society member. Wyatt would like to thank all his friends for supporting him, his parents for waiting up late for him at night, and miss T for tolerating his “snottiness” in matters of set! Wyatt wishes luck to all his senior buddies who have made the past years the best ever!

Cody Muller (Tom Fairchild) is sad that this will be his last performance on the IHS stage, but is excited to share with you all how far he has come. His career here at Independence goes all the way back to The Sound of Music where he played Friedrich Von Trapp. Later on that year he was seen as the G-Man in You Can’t Take It With You. The next year, he was once again blessed to be involved in both productions as Officer Mike in The Musical Comedy Murders of 1940 and John Brooke in the musical Little Women. Last fall, you may have seen Cody as the Tinman in The Wizard of Oz. After Sabrina Fair, Cody is off to Belmont University where he will pursue a degree in Classical Vocal Performance. He has enjoyed the literally hundreds of hours he has put into the theatre program here at HIS, and he feels that this has prepared him for even larger roles in performance. Cody would like to thank Miss T for a great year, his parents for their continuous support, and God for blessing him with all his talents.

Jordan Twaddle (David Larrabee) is ecstatic to return to the HIS stage for his final high school performance. Jordan joined the IHS theatre department sophomore year when he joined the Theatre II Class. From then on, he knew theatre was the place for him to be. Jordan's previous credits on this stage include The Sound of Music as a chorus member, The Musical Comedy Murders of 1940 as Helsa, Little Women as Professor Bhaer, and most recently as Uncle Henry in The Wizard of Oz. But Jordan is no stranger to the other aspects of theatre. He has worked in many positions behind-the-scenes in both the school and community theaters. Although he is sad for this chapter of life to end, he looks forward to what will happen down the line. Next year he plans to attend the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga to study Philosophy and Non-Profit Management. He would like to thank all his friends and family for their continuous support, and God for the opportunities and abilities to do his best. He thanks you, as well, for coming to support this show and department and hopes you enjoy the show!

John (JC) Nix is playing Frenchman Paul de'Argenson for his final, bittersweet, senior performance at IHS. His career on the Independence stage started his sophomore year when he was seen as Kurt Von Trapp in The Sound of Music. He has also been seen as the FBI Agent in You Can't Take It with You, Mr. Lawrence in Little Women, and his most recent role as the Lion in The Wizard of Oz. JC has spent countless hours cleaning the theater, building sets, memorizing lines, and other tasks that have helped make the Independence High School theatre department one of the best not only in Tennessee, but in the nation. JC has also served as the secretary of Independence's chapter of the International Thespian Society. He would like to thank his parents, his friends, and Miss T for helping him throughout the year. So sit back, relax, and enjoy the last show for the 2009-2010 school year, Sabrina Fair!

Rachel Melius (Maude Larrabee) is in complete "awe" of her past four years here at IHS. It's amazing how quickly time has flown and she wouldn't trade a single minute of it. She would've never expected as a freshman to be blessed with the opportunity to play roles such as Liesl in The Sound of Music, Maria in West Side Story, and most recently Dorothy in The Wizard of Oz. Also Rachel was honored with the Robert E. Crain Musical Theatre Scholarship this year at the Tennessee State Thespian Conference. This whole ride has been an amazing journey and the memories are absolutely unforgettable. The people she has met along the way are completely unmatched. Thank you to everyone who has been there every step of the way. It is truly inspiring the way God paves our paths to lead us in the right direction. The people that He places along the way to guide us provide us with the courage, drive, and support that push us farther than we could ever dream. Rachel knows this marks an end to one chapter of her life, but can't wait for what lies ahead. Rachel would like to thank each and every one of you, from the bottom of her heart.

Meet Your Cast

Chelsea LeRoy is truly humbled to be playing Sabrina Fairchild for her last role on the IHS stage. This is an honor that she would have never dreamed of when she first stumbled into Theatre I as a freshman. She has certainly come a long way since then, and she has so many friends and family members to thank, so thank you ALL! You've all kept her sane and dealt through her insanity during this production and others. She was Nikki Crandall in the Musical Comedy Murders of 1940 her junior year, and earlier this year was blessed with the interesting roll of The Wicked Witch of the West in The Wizard of Oz. She would finally like to thank Miss T for initially believing that she could take on such a wonderful part, and helping this year to be the theatre year she has grown and learned the most.

Taylor Sokoll (Linus Larrabee, Jr.) is more than likely still in a state of disbelief that this is his last performance on the IHS stage. He started off delivering invisible newspapers in Our Town, moved on to dye his hair an unnatural shade of blue/black for The Sound of Music, dawned a bald cap and a toga in You Can't Take It With You, struggled to remove his rubber galoshes in The Musical Comedy Murders of 1940, and was transformed into a giant talking head, only to be reviled as the man behind the curtain in The Wizard of Oz. While Taylor has spent an ample amount of his time on-stage, his true passion lies behind the scenes. He will be attending Columbia College Chicago in the fall to study Theatre with a focus in Directing. Taylor would like to thank Miss T, who has had the unfortunate task of putting up with him every day, Coach A for always being there when he felt overwhelmed, his family for their never ending love and support, his friends for keeping him in check when he went crazy, and the Fetner family, because without them, you would be looking at a bare stage. Taylor hopes you enjoy his final performance on the IHS stage.
